

From Charlotte's Web to the World Wide Web

The Web has changed our world, but no one knows what technological advances are still to come. Our children need to be ready to meet the challenges of tomorrow; and at Lincoln Library we need to be ready to help them. You can help us by contributing to the Children's Technology Fund.

Contributions to the fund will be spent on software, learning devices and furniture for children of all ages and to create a permanent endowment with the Lincoln Library Foundation to fund future purchases.

All donations are tax-deductible and will be noted in an upcoming issue of the Lincoln Library Bulletin.
