

Making Sense of Dollars

Financial Literacy is hard Here are some sessions to help you

July – September Classes & Dates

Nancy Huntley
Computer Classroom
4–5pm

Basics

July 14th Banking Basics

A session covering the basics of banking, including all the essential information you need to know when opening your first bank account.

August 11th Saving Success

A session on Saving Success will be centered around identifying goals, discussing strategies to reduce expenses, and planning for next steps, with an emphasis on encouraging positive behavioral change.

September 8th Developing Sound Financial Skills

A session focused on developing sound financial skills, including guidance on setting up a budget and managing finances.

Advanced

July 28th Scams, Schemes and Financial Predators

Info on how to stop a scammer from making you a statistic and how to identify emails & phone calls designed to relieve you of your hard earned cash

August 25th Student Loan Repayment

A session focusing on Student Loan Repayment, covering topics such as the key facts about student loans, various repayment options for federal and private loans, and important terms associated with each.

September 22th Budgeting for the Holidays

Discover how retailers entice shoppers to make impulse purchases and how to avoid going overboard when holiday shopping

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Northern Illinois

